N-570

NATURAL COLOR

PLACE STAMP HERE

Post Card

Dist. by EASTERN ILLUSTRATING CO., New London, N.H. 03257

One of the finest examples of a true Colonial village green is located in the small hilltop town of Washington, New Hampshire. A New Hampshire charter was granted in 1752 by the Massachusetts Colony as Monadnock #8. In 1776 the settlement took the name of Washington.

Photo by Don Sieburg

33907-C

dp MADE BY DEXTER PRESS, INC. WEST NYACK, NEW YORK